Dear Jim,

On behalf of everyone connected with the 2006 MACS Fall Conference, please accept our sincere thanks for your presentations. Your expertise made a significant contribution to the overall success of the conference.

We have compiled the evaluation information for each presentation and your afternoon plenary session averaged a score of 4.5 out of a possible 5. Participant comments included:

- Awesome
- Helped me to know that I can achieve greatness
- He "wowed" me
- Loved the real examples and exercises
- Very enlightening and a great philosophy

The staff retention workshop was also very well received, averaging a score of 4.1. The attendees found it to be a great interactive session with good ideas from all levels of staff.

Please know that we appreciate all that you have done to contribute to the work of MACS and the people and agencies we serve.

Sincerely,

Laura Howell
